San Jose Mayor Sam Liccardo's Statement on Google's Announced $1 Billion Bay Area Housing Investment

San Jose, Calif. – Today, Mayor Liccardo released the following statement in response to Google's announcement that they will invest $1 Billion to combat the Bay Area's housing crisis:

"For several months, we have encouraged Google to make a bold commitment to address our region's affordable housing challenge. We look forward to working with Google to ensure today's announcement manifests into housing that will benefit thousands of San José residents struggling under the burden of high rents."
